

TERMS SUMMARY

General Information

PeerCharts.com respects that the Internet provides a forum for free and open discussion and dissemination of information; however, when there are competing interests at issue peercharts.com reserves the right to take certain preventative or corrective actions. In order to protect these competing interests peercharts.com has developed an End User License Agreement ("EULA"), which supplements and explains certain terms of each customer's respective service agreement and is intended as a guide to the customer's rights and obligations when utilizing PeerChart's services. This EULA will be revised from time to time. A customer's use of PeerChart's services after changes to the EULA are posted on PeerChart's web site, www.PeerCharts.com, will constitute the customer's acceptance of any new or additional terms of the EULA that result from those changes.

Privacy Statement

PeerCharts.com also is concerned with the privacy of on-line communications and web sites. In general, the Internet is neither more nor less secure than other means of communication, including mail, facsimile, and voice telephone service, all of which can be intercepted and otherwise compromised. As a matter of prudence, however, peercharts.com urges its subscribers to assume that all of their on-line communications are insecure. PeerCharts.com cannot take any responsibility for the security of information transmitted over PeerCharts.com facilities. You acknowledge that peercharts.com does not pre-screen content. You agree that you must evaluate, and bear all risks associated with, the use of any content, including any reliance on the accuracy, completeness, or usefulness of such content.

PeerCharts.com will not intentionally monitor private electronic mail messages sent or received by its subscribers unless required to do so by law, governmental authority, or when public safety is at stake. PeerCharts.com may, however, monitor its service electronically to determine that its facilities are operating satisfactorily. Also, PeerCharts.com may disclose information, including but not limited to, information concerning a subscriber, a transmission made using our network, or a web site, in order to comply with a court order, subpoena, summons, discovery request, warrant, statute, regulation, or governmental request. PeerCharts.com assumes no obligation to inform the subscriber that subscriber information has been provided and in some cases may be prohibited by law from giving such notice. Finally, PeerCharts.com may disclose subscriber information or information transmitted over its network where necessary to protect PeerCharts and others from harm, or where such disclosure is necessary to the proper operation of the system.

Misuse

- You may not use your account directly or indirectly to perform or assist in illegal activities.
- All activities may be monitored, recorded, and examined by any authorized person.
- You must retain accurate contact information to avoid having your account terminated.
- Any violation found or fraudulent activity that system personnel deem inappropriate may have your account immediately terminated without notice and any recorded evidence reported to authorized persons.

- If you terminate your contract prior to its term, you may be disqualified from current promotional or advertisement campaigns.
 - PeerCharts.com will not be held liable for direct, indirect, incidental, special, consequential or exemplary damages.
 - If you discover anyone on our system violating any of these terms or notice anything suspicious from our network, report it at aaempeercharts@evolvemed.com for investigation. We will immediately terminate any account we feel has been in violation of any of these terms.
